TIRED isn't very much doing here at home nowadays, but up north there is lots of gayety. There is to be a "Gambol" at Elizabethtown, in the Adirondack Park, this week, by the Lambs' Club of New York.

Let's see—George R. Packard, of Villanova, are up there at their camp at Harraun, and Mrs. Biddle is going pretty soon to spend the rest of the summer with them.

Mrs. Fitz-Eugene Newbold has been up there for some time, but she left on Saturday for Northeast Harbor, Me., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper.

Theodore Paul is going, too. She is a beautiful dancer, you know. Their children are deserting them on Sunday for the First City Troop camp at Mr. Greina.

The Paul Claytons are at their camp just across the lake from Little Cataraugus. Mother are going up on Saturday to stay with the Hermses.

Earle—she was Mary Clayton, you know—has another camp nearby and they are going up on Sunday for the rest of the summer.

September always seems like the end of summer, in spite of the fact that some of the hottest, meanest days of the year come in that same little month.

YOU know this "Circus and Street Fair" at Southampton, L. I., today interests me greatly. I have an idea that it's going to be a real live graphology, too. Do you know what graphology is? Probably not. It was only by chance that I found it out just this year.

It's the study of the lines in the hand, for instance, if you happen to be a graphologist you can look at my signature and say, "My, what a selfish person."

"My, what a selfish person," you think, "she's something else!" or maybe it would be something near. Anyhow you'd know all about me from the way I make my A's and dot my Y's and cross my I's.

Well, here's a line from New York, in an article along these lines, and they are going to have them at Southampton to tell people what they are and why.

Gerardine Farrar and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar, are in the person, as I believe the committee hoped, but they have sent some interesting autographed photographs. And Caruso is sending some of his records.
